

Wednesday, September 14, 2016

19.00	Conference dinner and formal opening of the conference. The master of ceremony is Tom Taylor. Keynote presentation: A general introduction of the term “sustainability” and the message from the Paris convention 2015. The presentation will be given by a group of Icelandic project management practitioners that did a study on the subject in the spring of 2016 and produced TV documentaries that were broadcast in Icelandic television in early summer 2016. The group consists of people that are presently pursuing their MPM (Master of Project Management) degree at Reykjavik University.
--------------	--

Thursday, September 15, 2016

09.00	Keynote presentation on future scenarios. What will world look like in 2050?
10.00	Scenario planning group session organized by Professor Yvonne Schoper.
12.00	Lunch
13.00	Scenario planning continued.
16.00	A keynote presentation: What is being done currently regarding sustainability, “what is the gap?” The presentation is given by Gilbert Silvius and Joel Carboni.
17.00	IPMA RESEARCH AWARDS CEREMONY &amp; RECEPTION An invited talk will be given by Hans Georg Gemünden, professor at BI, the Norwegian Business School and winner of the 2015 IPMA Research Achievement award.

Friday, September 16, 2016

08.00	Invited talk on how to close the gap – focus on project outcomes.  The presentation is given by Michael Young. World café session on how to close the gap – focus on project outcomes. Coordinated by Michael Young, Yvonne Schoper and Helgi Thor Ingason.
11.00	Invited talk on how to close the gap – focus on project management  The presentation is given by professor Peter Morris.
12.00	Lunch
13.00	World café session on how to close the gap – focus on project management.  Coordinated by Michael Young, Yvonne Schoper and Helgi Thor Ingason.
15.00	Wrap up of conference, how to process the outcomes, next steps
16.00	Conference closed

Saturday, September 17, 2016

09.00	Optional excursion
--------------	--------------------